

(WSU) WHOEVER SHOWS UP

“Whoever Shows Up” is a group so fine.
They sing of Jesus and are one of a kind
Their sweet songs of praise have a special blend.
We can feel God’s Spirit on our church descend.

We may raise our voices or sing out of tune,
As the joy of Jesus soon enters the room.
With smiles on our faces, we are filled with cheer,
As our song rings out for the world to hear.

The guitars are strummed and a shiny banjo,
Joins a harmonica that makes the music flow.
Their voices all blend in a sweet refrain,
As they praise the Savior and rejoice in His name.

There are nine members in this Christian band,
But if something comes up and one has other plans,
Whoever shows up is enough to perform.
Their music spreads joy and makes our hearts warm.

They pass out songbooks that have words of praise,
Like “Gather at the River” and “I’ll Fly Away.”
“When the Roll is Called Up Yonder” and “I Shall Not Be Moved,”
Then music fills the rafters and the folks get in the groove.

“There is Power in the Blood” of God’s precious Son.
“I Shall Not Be Moved” until His work is done.
“What a Friend We Have in Jesus” are the words that we sing.
“Will the Circle Be Unbroken” when we meet our Holy King?

They gave testimonies and read scripture too.
The joy of Jesus Christ and His love shined through.
Then they packed up their gear and hit the road again.
We fondly remember our new WSU friends.
